RTD Supports Bike to Work Week on May 18

(Stockton, CA) – On Wednesday, May 18, San Joaquin Regional Transit District (RTD) will staff a booth in support of Bike to Work Week. Bike to Work Week promotes cycling as an environmentally friendly transportation option to the workplace.

The event lasts from 6:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. and will be led by Stockton's Mayor Ann Johnston and other leaders in the community. The Mayor will lead the way from David's Pizza on Hammer Lane to Janet Leigh Plaza on El Dorado Street, joined by members of the community along the way.

Riders who want to travel to work in a group can meet at one of these four Stockton locations: David's Pizza at 1744 W. Hammer Lane, Kaiser Permanent at 7373 West Lane, Mountain Mike's Pizza at 3526 Manthey Road, or Community Partnership-Families at 2326 S. Airport Way.

Riders can meet at any of these sites by bike or by bus. To find a bus route to connect to the above locations, visit www.sanjoaquinrtd.com or call the RTD Customer Information Line at (209) 943-1111 or 1-800-HOW-TO-RIDE (1-800-469-8674).

RTD offers passengers convenient, easy-to-use bike racks on RTD Metro and Intercity buses and in the cargo area under Interregional buses.

To learn more about RTD's bike rack service, visit www.sanjoaquinrtd.com or follow San Joaquin RTD on Facebook and Twitter.
